

Goede Kap Pinotage 2012

main variety Pinotage

vintage 2012

analysis alc: 13.95 | ph: 3.66 | rs: 3.16 | ta: 5.25 | ts02: 81 | fs02: 41

type Red

producer Bromar Wines

style Dry

winemaker Tinus Broodryk

wine of Western Cape

body Full

tasting notes

Wine Type: Natural Dry Red

Taste: Coffee & Mocha

Complex with strong coffee and mocha flavours mixed with plum fruit.

Export only

ageing potential

Enjoy now, can be aged for up to 6 - 8 years.

blend information

100% Pinotage

food suggestions

Grills, stews, red meat and game.

in the vineyard

From the Paarl dry land region.

about the harvest

Date of Harvest: February 2012

Type of Harvest: Hand harvest

in the cellar

Crushed into traditional red wine tanks. Maceration fermentation until desired colour extraction is obtained. Final fermentation in heavy toasted wood.