

Goede Kap Special Late Harvest 2012

main variety Chenin Blanc

vintage 2012

analysis alc: 12.94 | ph: 3.83 | rs: 45.0 | ta: 5.3 | ts02: 190 | fs02: 39

type White style Sweet

producer Bromar Wines winemaker Tinus Broodryk

wine of Western Cape

tasting notes

Wine Type: Special late Harvest

Taste: Honey & hay

Fresh tropical fruit flavours, fresh honey overlay

Export only

ageing potential

Enjoy now, can be aged for up to 5 - 6 years.

blend information

100% Chenin Blanc

food suggestions

Pates cheeses or desert.

in the vineyard

From the Slanghoek region, dry land botrytis vineyards.

about the harvest

Date of Harvest: April 2012

Type of Harvest: Strictly selected hand harvest.

in the cellar

Crushed into static drainer and left for 24 hour skin contact where after the free run juice and a certain percentage of first stage tank press juice is fermented together. Fermentation stopped at approx 48g residual sugar.